Instructions to the Applicant:

1. Limited license applicants are required to submit applications to both the Board and the New Mexico Supreme Court. See <http://nmexam.org/limited-license/> for more information.
2. Qualified applicants will be granted a limited license by the Court during the pendency of the character and fitness investigation conducted by the Board and the National Conference of Bar Examiners.
3. Limited license applicants undergo a complete character and fitness evaluation; applications will take several months to investigate and evaluate.
4. All application documents must be typed, except for notary information, which may be hand-written, and signatures or initials. All notarizations and signatures must be hand-signed originals.
5. Do not staple, tab, bind, or paperclip any part of the application materials or forms.
6. You must answer all questions completely and make answers as specific as possible.
7. If information becomes available subsequent to the date of your application, you must supplement the application as soon as that information becomes known to you and prior to your admission.
8. This checklist only contains the items that must be submitted by the applicant in his or her initial application packet. Visit <http://nmexam.org/limited-license/> for all remaining required items.
