Instructions to the Applicant:

1. Reciprocity applicants undergo a complete character and fitness evaluation; as a result, applications will take several months to investigate and evaluate. Please plan accordingly.
2. All application documents must be typed, except for notary information, which may be hand-written, and signatures or initials. All notarizations and signatures must be hand-signed originals.
3. Do not staple, tab, bind, or paperclip any part of the application materials or forms except where instructed to do so.
4. You must answer all questions completely and make answers as specific as possible.
5. If information becomes available subsequent to the date of your application, you must supplement the application as soon as that information becomes known to you and prior to your admission.

This checklist only contains the items that must be submitted by the applicant in his or her initial application packet; additional documents are required. All forms, deadlines, and detailed instructions for reciprocity applicants are online at <http://nmexam.org/reciprocity/>
